

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER ADDRESSING PROCEDURES FOR THE RELEASE OF DEFENDANTS WHO HAVE RECEIVED TIME-SERVED
SENTENCES OR SENTENCES RESTORING OR MODIFYING PROBATION OR COMMUNITY CONTROL

WHEREAS, in an effort to provide clarification as to when the time period expires for the release of defendants pursuant to orders for release entered in open court for time-served sentences or for sentences restoring or modifying probation or community control and to provide reasonable time for Orange County Corrections staff to complete administrative processing tasks incident to the release of defendants, it is necessary that procedures be established;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ted Coleman, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida under Florida Rules of Judicial Administration 2.050, hereby order the following:

1. Whenever a defendant in a criminal case is ordered released by the presiding judge in open court pursuant to a time-served sentence or a sentence restoring or modifying probation or community control, the time served sentence or such sentence restoring or modifying probation or community control shall be deemed to run through 11:59 p.m. on the date that the order for release is imposed to allow a reasonable time for administrative processing tasks to be performed by the Orange County Corrections Department staff incident to release of a defendant from the custody of the Orange County Corrections Department.

2. Said administrative processing tasks include, but are not limited to, transportation of
